Issue No. 11

Monday 19th November 2007

Assemblies: On Friday, we listened to all our Mandarin Speech Festival contestants, and wish them all the best of luck when they go to take part. Mr. Wong was very impressed with them all, and we feel that many of our students will do very well this year. Thanks to our Mandarin Teachers who have been coaching them over the past few weeks, together with their parents at home!

Today, at our Ching Wah Street campus, Primary 1A sang us three songs, very enthusiastically! Thanks to Mrs. Austin and her class!

Stars of the Week: given this week in the Upper School by the Mandarin Teachers, and by the Class Teachers in the Lower School, as follows:

Noel Dube, Faith Leung and Freeman Kong (P6), Clifton Ling, Angela Yang, Sharon Yang and Athena Leung (P5), Elaine Mok, Katie Lui and Marian Williams (P4), Charles Chung, Justin Choi, Nicole Evans and Mark Ngai (P3), Bryan Ng, Julie Ho and Val Shiu (P2), Kyle Tse (P1Os), Lance Kou and Gabrielle Law (P1O), Natana Tse (P1A), Hayley and Emily Leung (PP1pm), Edward Su (R1am), Theodore Caplowe (R2am), Josa Kwan (Rpm), Johannes Yau (KG1am), Natalie Woods (KG2am), Martin To (KGpm), and our PE Star this week is Jun Takazawa from P5C. Well done and congrats to all our stars this week!

Last Week: Our Football team went to the German Swiss football tournament last Friday, and did quite well! Ms. Yeung reports the following: There were nine teams joining last Friday's GSIS football tournament. We and the French International School both came fifth. We played four games, winning one, losing two and drawing one. Our boys played very well, well done to everyone. Also a big thank you to the parents who came to support, it made a big difference! Both Mr. Mason and I will take a P5/6 combined team to attend the ESF Schools tournament this Saturday at KGV. We hope we can do even better!

This week: Today our Primary 3 classes are visiting the History Museum. This week will also see the start of activities related to our fund raising for Operation Santa Claus, our annual charity. If you have not already received class letters about this they will be coming home with your child very soon, and we do hope that you will support your children's efforts in raising money for the 18 Hong Kong based Charities that Operation Santa is supporting this year. Also this week the Hong Kong Speech Festival begins, with many of our students taking part both in the English and Mandarin sections of the competition. We wish them all the best of luck.

The forthcoming PTA Christmas Dinner Party letter should have arrived home via your child last week. If you will be attending and have yet to return the reply slip, please do so as soon as possible, please! Places are going fast!
