2007/8 NEWSLETTER NO. 8

19th December 2007

Today: We held our monthly merit award assembly this morning in the school hall, when we congratulated all those who have been awarded many merits over the past two months. The list of students is attached to this newsletter.

Also today the teachers shall be meeting with the parents of the Year 12 students, between 4 and 6 p.m.

Cracking Christmas Carnival: Everyone worked very hard at this carnival, on Monday, and as a result the students have raised a magnificent $9,987, for the Room to Read Charity, and in addition the Year 11H Candy Cane Express made an additional $2,133, bringing the grand total raised this month to $12,120 for Room to Read! Well done everyone, and we look forward to further fund-raising in the new year.

News of the extra School Uniform Items: Our Uniform supplier was in school yesterday selling the new jackets and scarves to our students. As this is now our designated uniform, when the weather turns really cold, from January 2008, and you have not yet purchased one for your child, you can get them from our supplier, name and address supplied by Jacqueline in the office. The jacket and scarf are relatively inexpensive, at around $250 for both items. Next term we will be making sure that all our students are wearing the proper school uniform from January 3rd onwards, and therefore other jackets that have been allowed so far, will now no longer be allowed as school uniform, and students may be penalized for wearing non-uniform in school.

School Reports: Year 10 reports came home with the students on Monday, and should be safely with you. Also the letter regarding the forthcoming Year 10 Parent/Teacher Meeting on January 9th should have been emailed to you along with the form for appointments, yesterday. Please call Jacqueline if you have not yet received this letter and form.

Next Term: As you know we break up for Christmas Holidays this Friday, at 12 noon, and resume next term on Thursday 3rd January, 2008 at 9 a.m. May we wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and Happy and Prosperous New Year.
