

What are they doing?

What are the children doing?

• Follow the strings.

Sarah

Robin

Cara

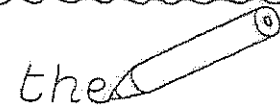

Sue

Aaron

is singing

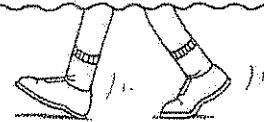

is writing

is reading

is swimming

is walking

• Write sentences about the children.

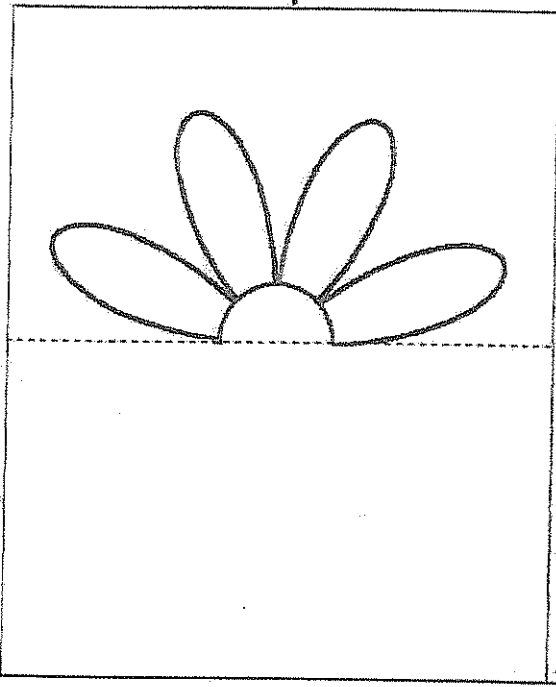

• Write five sentences about other things people do.

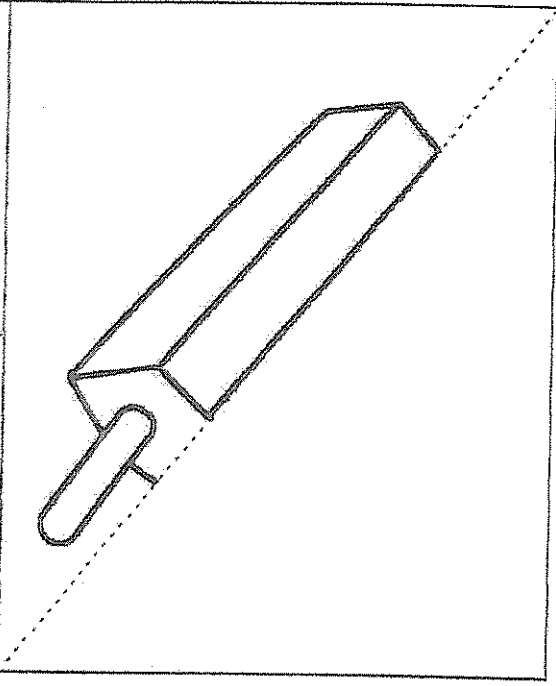

Teachers' note To introduce the activity, invite the children, in turn, to demonstrate an activity for the others, who have to say what he or she is doing. After they have given the word for the action, ask them to answer in a sentence, for example, 'Kofi is jumping.'

Symmetrical Summer Pictures: Finish the Drawing Name _____

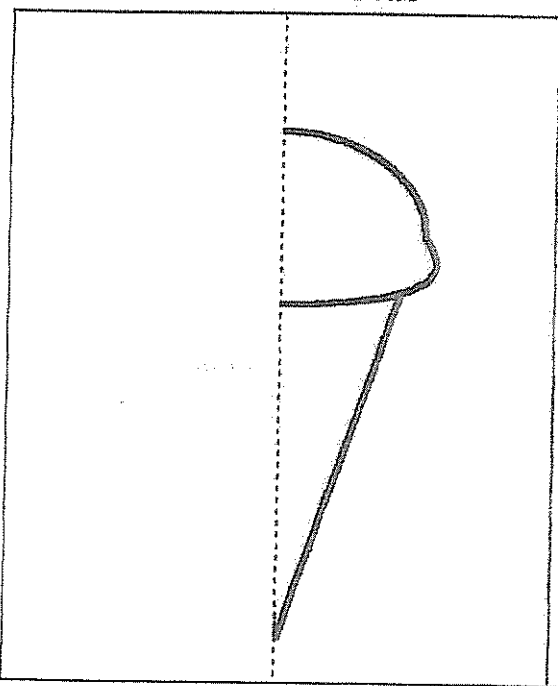

Daisy

Popsicle

Ice Cream Cone

Sun

