

Using Is and Are

Use is to tell about what one person or thing is doing now. Use are to tell about what more than one person or thing are doing now.

Examples:

Jack is sick today.

Jack's friends are sick, too.

DIRECTIONS

Complete each sentence. Write is or are.

1. He _____ my father.

2. She _____ my mother.

3. They _____ in the garden.

4. Sue and I _____ in the garden, too.

5. The flowers _____ pretty.

6. Our dog _____ black and white.

Practice with Action Words

Remember, action words can tell about now.

Example:

I play checkers with my brother.

Action words can also tell about the past.

Example:

Last night I played checkers with my sister.

DIRECTIONS

Read each sentence. Choose the correct word in () to complete the sentence.

1. Last summer we _____ in the lake.
(fish, fished)

2. Last night Sara _____ TV.
(watch, watched)

3. Now Harry and Sam _____ to music.
(listen, listened)

4. Last year Anna _____ a picture.
(paint, painted)

5. Mike bought food to _____ for dinner.
(cook, cooked)

days

Time

Thursday

Friday

Saturday

Sunday

4th day

5th day

6th day

7th day

Name _____

PP: LD9 AS94: Drawing

Shades and shadows

Put the sun in the sky and draw the shadows where they should fall. Colour and shade the picture.

